

Travel with Zingerman's to SPAIN-CATALONIA

May 27- June 4, 2017

Why?

The food traditions of the Catalonia region of Spain are well worth traveling to enjoy firsthand. It is known for its fresh fish, oysters and mussels, artisan olive oils and wines, rice dishes such as paella, hazelnuts, and much more. All this in the midst of postcard-worthy views, from the unique architecture to the sparkling Mediterranean Sea and the breathtaking Pyrenees Mountains. This trip is sure to captivate all your senses and should not be missed.

Who?

We keep the group small. Up to 14 guests traveling with two experienced hosts. The trip is designed for experienced travelers with a passion for learning about and enjoying great food and wine. Our guests are adults of all ages who enjoy traveling with a small group. They like walking, and are able to walk on uneven ground and up and down hills.
